

Museums for All FAQ

Q: What is Museums for All?

A: Museums for All is a cooperative initiative between the American Children's Museums (ACM) and the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS) to offer a signature access program that encourages low-income and under-served individuals and families to visit museums regularly and build lifelong museum habits.

Q: How does Museums for All work?

A: Any individual or family receiving food assistance and is in possession of a Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) card will receive $3 per person admission to the Discovery Center of Idaho for up to 4 people per visit.

Q: Can I purchase a Museums for All admission rate online?

A: No. Because a SNAP EBT card must be presented to receive the Museums for All admission rate, all transactions must occur at the Discovery Center of Idaho front desk.

To reserve admission up to 7 days in advance, visit our Front Desk to purchase in person. -OR- Visit based on walk-in availability by calling the Front Desk ahead at 208.343.9895 to find the best times to drop in.

Q: Does the Museums for All admission rate include special exhibitions?

A: Museums for All includes everything accessible with General Admission. Visit dcidaho.org to learn what's available.

Q: Can I combine Museums for All with other available discounts?

A: No. Museums for All admission rate cannot be combined with other promotions or discounts.

Q: Can I use my SNAP EBT card to purchase a Museums for All admission ticket?

A: No. Your SNAP EBT card is only presented as identification showing that you are eligible for the Museums for All admission rate and cannot be used as a form of payment. You must pay via cash or credit card at the front desk.

Q: Is there a limit to the number of Museums for All visits I can make?

A: Any individual or family who presents a SNAP EBT card can visit the Discovery Center of Idaho as many times as they like and receive the Museums for All rate for up to 4 people per visit.

Q: Are there other museums participating in this program?

A: Yes, there are many museums participating in the Museums for All program. A full list of participating museums can be viewed here.

Help us spread the word about Museums for All at the Discovery Center of Idaho. Share through social media using #dcidaho and #MuseumsForAll